

Kingsbridge Armory Survey Data

Total Responses: 951

Question: What values define this neighborhood and community?

Responses to this question identified respect, collaboration, trust, and unity as values that define this neighborhood and community. Respondents also included works that point to the inclusive and diverse nature of the community.

Most frequently occurring words

Word	Frequency
Community	586
Respect	128
Diversity	89
Family	88
Hard Work	77
Collaboration	46
Inclusivity	40
Youth	40

Question: How can new development support this community's values?

Most mentioned ideas:

- KBA redevelopment can support community values by incorporating input from community members into the final plan for the armory
- Developing a vision for the armory that fosters unity, respect, and trust throughout the community by providing uses for youth, small businesses/entrepreneurs, and community groups

Question: What are your top concerns about this redevelopment project?

Most mentioned concerns:

- Lack of transparency throughout the planning and redevelopment process
- Rushed and/or unsatisfactory community engagement process
- Redeveloped armory will feature uses/programming that do not address the needs of the community

Question: What is the best way for a future Armory to support the community?

Most common priorities:

